NEW MED STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
College of Medicine
Tucson

Diversity in Medicine Visiting Student Scholarship

Scholarship Goals:

- Encourage students who self-identify with groups who are underrepresented in medicine to consider residency at the University of Arizona, College of Medicine Tucson
- Promote student awareness of opportunities in academic medicine
- Provide mentoring and networking for students who identify as underrepresented in medicine
- Provide a stipend of up to $1,500 to help offset cost of housing and travel

Who Should Apply:
The Scholarship is open to applicants who have been accepted to participate in a four-week visiting elective at the University of Arizona College of Medicine Tucson, and who self-identify as under-represented in medicine.

Applicants must be a 4th year medical student in good standing at an accredited U.S. allopathic/osteopathic medical school and must have completed all required clerkships through their home institution prior to beginning their visiting student elective.

How To Apply:
The following documents must be submitted to the Department Clerkship Director:

- Application form
- Brief statement (500 word limit) that describes interest in attending the University of Arizona, explains how student views themselves as underrepresented in medicine and demonstrates commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion
- One letter of recommendation from a clinical faculty member
- Curriculum vitae
- Letter of good standing from medical school
- Official medical school transcript

How Scholarship Recipients Will Be Selected: Applications will be reviewed, and recipients selected by members of the Department's Diversity Committees.

- DMI in conjunction with the ODEI and COM-T/Banner has partnered to offer the Underrepresented in Medicine Scholarship for visiting out-of-state medical students.
- Thanks to Drs. Rubin, Gilbertson, Arif, Desoky and the administrative staff who support residency and medical student education.
